

LOURDES COLLEGE
Assistant/Associate Professor of Business and Internship Coordinator

Lourdes College, a private institution of higher education offering bachelor and graduate degrees in the liberal arts and professional studies, invites applicants for the position of Assistant/Associate Professor of Business and Internship Coordinator. This is a full-time, ten month faculty position.

This position will serve as both departmental faculty and Internship Coordinator across the Business curriculum. In addition to teaching internship related classes each semester (BUS 100 and BUS 340), the Internship Coordinator will work with the business community, faculty across majors, the Office of Career Services, students, and other College staff, facilitating the building and promotion of the internship program; creating processes for developing internship sites; assessing outcomes; publicizing the internship program to both internal and external audiences; and refining and maintaining an internship database. The selected individual may assist in facilitating the development of a possible M.B.A. program.

Qualifications: Terminal degree (Ph.D. or D.B.A.) in a business discipline preferred; M.B.A.'s will be considered. Rank is dependent upon qualifications and experience. History and excellence in teaching; knowledge of field/internship placements; experience in creating and maintaining databases. The successful candidate must demonstrate their ability to work cooperatively and productively with the business community, faculty, staff and students, show evidence of excellent teaching and student advocacy, professional development and productivity and a commitment to department and college service. Experience in program development desired.

To apply, candidates should send a cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy and contact information for three professional references (all in MS Word format only) to resume@lourdes.edu

Screening of applications will begin immediately.

EOE