

ECONOMICS

Saint Joseph's College, a small Catholic College in rural Indiana, is accepting applications for a position in economics at the assistant professor level beginning in August 2010. Applicants must be able to teach a variety of undergraduate economics courses and be willing to participate in the college's general education Core program. Earned PhD and excellence in teaching required to obtain tenure. Send application materials to Dr. John Nichols, VPAA, Box 895, Saint Joseph's College, Rensselaer IN 47978-0895.

BUSINESS

Saint Joseph's College, a small Catholic College in rural Indiana, is accepting applications for a new position. The college is contemplating the inception of an MBA 4+1 program and is seeking a person with experience in beginning and administering such a program. The right candidate will possess a PhD in a business area and be ready to begin in August of 2010. Send application materials to Dr. John Nichols, VPAA, Box 895, Saint Joseph's College, Rensselaer IN 47978-0895.