

Assistant Professor, Accounting

Chancellor University is a highly motivated, energetic team of business scholars, academics, and practitioners who are working diligently on transforming our 160 year-old university into a regional powerhouse for business education and innovation. We offer a cutting-edge instructional environment that matches the fast-paced, demanding needs of today's global educational marketplace. Chancellor University currently offers associate's, bachelor's and master's degree programs in business, professional studies and liberal arts.

The University is experiencing tremendous growth and is currently accepting applications for a full-time Assistant Professor to teach Accounting in the College of Business undergraduate program and in the newly formed Jack Welch Management Institute™ of Chancellor University graduate program. The individual selected for this position is expected to hold a PhD or DBA with a focus in accounting from a regionally accredited institution. The University will consider ABDs scheduled to graduate within the next 6 months. CPAs with a MBA and extensive teaching background will qualify in lieu of a terminal degree. Potential candidates with a strong understanding of market-driven universities and the online teaching environment are highly encouraged to apply.

Responsibilities will include:

- Teaching both undergraduate and graduate courses
- Develop new programs
- Create Syllabi
- Serve as lead faculty for online instructors
- Assist with student retention and tutoring
- Perform administrative duties as assigned

Full-time faculty members are required to make their employment at Chancellor University their primary employment commitment.

Job requirements include:

- PhD or DBA in Accounting
- CPA designation with MBA and extensive teaching background acceptable
- Experience working in an online/adult learning environment strongly preferred
- Understanding and appreciation of competency-based education
- Skills in the use of technology-based delivery systems

To apply for this position, submit resume or vita, cover letter, and names, e-mails and telephone numbers of 3 references to: employment@chancelloru.edu
