

Carroll is a Catholic diocesan college located near the Continental Divide in the beautiful city of Helena, MT, is seeking an instructor in accounting to join the Business Department as it launches its first Master's Degree of Accountancy. This is a full time instructor position beginning in June 2018 and may evolve into a tenure track position.

Carroll is widely recognized as a uniquely engaged residential learning community inspired by faith-based values, and is home to more than 1,400 students from 23 states and 13 countries. The outstanding faculty, including 13 Fulbright scholars, offers a rich mix of liberal arts and pre-professional academic programming for 40 academic undergraduate majors.

Situated in the west central Montana, and surrounded by the Rocky Mountains and Lewis and Clark National Forest, Helena offers an abundance of distinctive outdoor opportunities. You'll find more than 75 miles of hiking and biking trails just minutes from campus, and Helena is in close proximity to the Continental Divide Trail, natural hot springs, Great Divide Ski Area, and the Missouri River. Yellowstone National Park and Glacier National Park are just a few hours away. As the capital of Montana, Helena offers a rich diversity of opportunities that you simply won't find anywhere else. Our students have unparalleled access to internships at a wide range of offices, as well as state and federal agencies that are headquartered here.

Montana offers millions of acres of public lands filled with hunting opportunities. No matter what you are in search of - from big game to waterfowl - Montana offers a diversity of habitats and wildlife.

U.S. News & World Report consistently ranks us the #1 Regional College in the West, the #2 Regional Best Value College in the West, and the #1 Regional College in the West for Veterans -our students and faculty excel.

Our successful candidate will be required to teach various graduate courses in taxation as well as other accounting courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels. The successful candidate will possess a master's degree in accounting or a related field as well as a CPA license. A Master's in Taxation, online teaching and other related teaching experience is also preferred. The successful candidate will be a full-time, on campus functioning member of the department with typical departmental duties such as advising and committee work. Salary is in the low 50s for the academic contract, August through May. Please submit vitae, transcripts, response to Carroll College's mission statement, student evaluations (if available) and contact information for three professional references to employment@carroll.edu. Application materials submitted by January 19, 2018 will receive priority consideration. Carroll College is an EEO employer.