Probationary Accreditation is an accredited status; students who graduate from the program while it is on probation are considered to be graduates of an accredited program. The decision for this action on accreditation indicates that the Board of Commissioners identified conditions in the program that are significantly out of compliance with the IACBE’s Accreditation Principles. IACBE provides this notice to the program and the public: if the program does not satisfactorily resolve the identified conditions, accreditation may be withdrawn. For more details, please refer to the Board of Commissioners Letter.
