Membership Status: Candidate for Accreditation

A Candidate for Accreditation of business-related programs has met the IACBE's requirements to be a Candidate for Accreditation and maintains good standing at the institutional level in its current accreditation from a recognized accrediting agency or recognition agency appropriate to its geographic region. A Candidate for Accreditation has (i) successfully completed the IACBE's candidacy requirements relating to its business-related programs, resources, and operational processes, (ii) affirmed its commitment to excellence in business education, and (iii) been deemed eligible by the IACBE Board of Commissioners to undergo a review of its business programs for specialized accreditation.

Candidates for accreditation have not yet undergone accreditation reviews and do not have business programs that are accredited by the IACBE.

At its December 2021 meeting, the IACBE Board of Commissioners voted to take the following action for the Member's business programs as indicated in the table below:
